Collected Knowledge & Wisdom on

They Said So

Provides:

They Said So provides a large collection of quotes which can be accessed.

Key Provisioning: Pain factor (0=ezpz...5=nightmare): _0_

- A key is not needed for certain methods
- An API key, which is required for "private" methods and increasing quota, costs money

Quotas:

- 10 requests an hour

The Good:

- Great documentation
- Quote of the day is a public method
- Searching categories of quotes is also a public method

The Bad:

- Many methods are private (random quote, quote images)

The Ugly:

- A monthly subscription (lowest $4.99) is required for an API key
